With the bathroom sinks and floor cabinets, Cala 2.0 articulates the characteristic round-gentle softness so consistently that one can hardly remove oneself from its comforting effect. The organically downwardly curved edge of the elegant moulded mineral bathroom sink and the ergonomically curved fronts reminiscent of a hull seduce one into touching them.

Cala 2.0 combines visual and haptic sensuality with a clear interpretation of sense of order. The semi-tall cupboards surprise on the inside with practical highlights such as the interior drawer with an integrated, individualisable order system. The mirror cabinet ensures brightening moments with lateral lighting and an innovative light canopy at the top.

Handles

Cala is characterised by round, soft and feminine shapes. Exceptions, such as wall and mirrored cupboards, prove the rule. Wash stands with basin edges which curve inwards organically and thus make the basin appear much larger are characteristic of Cala. Just like the cupboards under the wash stand with the ergonomically concave fronts, providing additional leg room. This makes Cala attractive for rooms of all sizes – especially smaller ones.
